NO: 2380, March 15, 4 p.m.

PRIORITY

DEPTELS 1335 and 1349.

Note as contained reference telegram delivered to Foreign Minister at 1300 today under number 254. Ros read it twice and appeared pleased at its general tone. I answered him we had no intention of publishing it.

I remarked that in thinking back over course of relations between United States and revolutionary government it seemed to me that a good part of existing differences had arisen from misunderstandings and from series of fortuitous circumstances and incidents undesired by either party. He said he agreed completely and expressed hope United States and Cuba would shortly be able to work out satisfactory solutions to their differences through normal diplomatic channels.
